

Atlas' Vecchi receives professional designation

Jennifer Vecchi of North Attleborough, manager of incentives and recognition programs at Atlas Meetings + Incentives in Milford, recently completed the coursework and examinations required by Recognition Professionals International to receive the designation of Certified Recognition Professional. Vecchi has spent the last three years developing incentive and recognition programs for Atlas Travel International's diverse client list and developed group incentive programs for eight years before joining Atlas, a company which specializes in meeting planning, group travel awards and individual travel awards.