

Travel Agents

Atlas Travel Offers One-of-a-Kind Cruises

Published on: May 12, 2006

Atlas Travel, based in Milford, Mass., is offering its recently announced Sheer Luxury cruise vacations series with special, private shore excursions, private cocktail parties and a cruise host that accompanies the Atlas groups. In addition to the special events, Atlas is also offering a $300 per couple shipboard credit based on double occupancy on selected sailings. The special package and pricing are available on a wide variety of itineraries on seven cruise lines. In addition to the $300 perk, travelers booking a selected Ensemble Hosted Cruise with Atlas Travel International may also enjoy savings of up to 50 percent depending on the cruise line and departure. In addition, Atlas Travel has a new Central European Destination Specialist, Kay Murphy, who recently completed a five-day, extensive in-country training program at the American Society of Travel Agents' (ASTA) International Destination Expo in Prague. For more information, visit www.atlastravel.com.